Ned W. Durgan

AUG 26, 1927 - SEP 26, 2020

Ned W. Durgan, age 93, passed away Saturday, September 26, 2020. He was born August 26, 1927 in Muskegon to Clyde and Genevieve (Gjestrom) Durgan and lived in the area his entire life. Ned was a proud veteran of the U.S. Navy and served during WWII. On January 26, 1984, he married Lucille J. "Lucy" Calkins in Muskegon and she survives him. He worked as a conductor and brakeman for C & O Railroad for 33 years and retired in 1985. Survivors include his wife, Lucy Durgan; 9 children, Cindy Lapekes, Deb (Michael) Czarnopis, Ned W. (Karen) Durgan II, Clyde Durgan, Felicia Durgan, Gretchen (Bob) Langlois, David W. Moseler, Douglas C. Moseler, Deborah J. Loyselle; 3 generations of grandchildren; and 1 sister, Nancy (Bob) Simonelli. He was preceded in death by 1 daughter, Lisa Ann Durgan and 1 son, Daniel C. Moseler. The family wishes to extend gratitude to Harbor Hospice, especially Nurse Christina, for the loving care that Ned received from them. In keeping with Ned's wishes, Private Family Services will be held. For those wishing to make an expression of sympathy, please consider the Salvation Army or the Harbor Hospice Foundation. Arrangements handled by The Lee Chapel of Sytsema Funeral & Cremation Services, 6291 Harvey St, Norton Shores, MI 49444. Sign the guestbook online at www.sytsemafh.com

I was so sorry to read of Ned's passing - I so wanted to visit him again since the Covid restrictions began in March. I really enjoyed my time with Ned - we had some interesting conversations and were able to pass the time of our 3-hour visits easily. I enjoyed hearing about his wonderful family and got to know Lucy as well. My condolences to the family on the loss of someone so special. May warm memories help to soften your sorrow.
