For over 40 years now we have been very great friends of Ron and Jackie Mann and their children. Before moving away we spent hours with them at our homes playing table games and just being together having so much fun and fellowship. This included their children also. They were always thinking of others and their needs before their own. One very special memory was after we moved away, we went back to Muskegon to go camping. A very bad storm was coming our way and we heard from the Mann's that they were worried about us and were coming out to help pack us up and take us to their home. They did this and we spend the remaining two days at their home with them having a great time. This is the way they were and part of what made them so special in our lives. It's been great lately spending time talking to Jackie here on Facebook. We have so many awesome memories of our times together and have missed and will continue missing them so very much. We've so thankful that we are Christians to and look forward to seeing and being with them again in Heaven some day. We're so very sorry that Jackie had to go through this terrible Covid-19 and that it is what took her away from everyone. Our awesome memories of Jackie and her family are what we're focusing on right now and our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Billy, Ron, Vicki and Scott and their families at this very difficult time. We love you all and are in our thoughts and prayers daily. Ralph and Doreen Stiles

When I first met Jackie she was pregnant with Scott; before she become my dear sister-in-law. She and Ron opened their arms to welcome me – an English immigrant -- into their lives and family. My parents were so glad the Mann family was part of my new American family. When they'd visit the US my mother liked nothing better than to have her hair done beautifully by Jackie, who would never take payment, although she did accept the occasional nice box of chocolates. What a kind and gentle soul we found in Jackie. It's a comfort to know that she's now with Ron, filled with the joy of reunion and the peace that comes after a life so well lived. RIP dear Jackie. You will never be forgotten. Chris Todd (Nevins)

So sad to hear this news. Aunt Jackie was always cheerful and happy to see me. I remember as a child visiting her house and it was always fun! She always had lots of food and of course treats! As I grew up, she always made a point to ask me about my own kids and took interest. A very kind and loving Great Aunt, she will be missed.
