I will always remember Uncle Ted for his hospitality. One of the fond memories as a kid was showing up to the trailer on the lake with our big family of six kids and Uncle Ted and Aunt Irene, would make us feel right at home offer us a soda from the fridge in the shed. And later on later memory was definitely The Stays at the cabin during hunting and all the Stories he would tell of his days hunting. He might have told us the same stories over and over again but it always brought him Joy to tell them. Uncle Ted you will be missed and this year at hunting camp we will honor you with a shot! Rest In Peace. Your Great Nephew Matt
