The best memories for the last 20 years were shared with christopher. The laughter we have shared is uncountable (Especially at ourselves) the tears of joy and sadness I wouldn't want to share with anyone but you. As I sit here and think of all the crazy the fun, the down right embarrassing things we have did. It helps me cope with the loss. The love you have showed me over the years is irreplaceable. I love you Christopher and I'm proud of the man you will be sitting next to your pops watching over all your loved ones.

I knew Chris as a small child . And lately on Facebook. He looked just like his daddy that I grew up with , who was much like a brother !Bob is at peace having his son with him now ! My hope is those here will understand the loss is great now but you will be reunited one day . Until then I am so sorry for your sorrow and pain ! He really seemed like a fun character like his daddy was ! Big hugs to you all!

I just remember a sweet spirited little boy who looked up to his daddy. Bob used to include my son on their fishing trips and "guy" things when they were small...I haven't forgotten. Though they'll be missed here, without a doubt, they're both catching up in heaven, safe and sound. My love and prayers to you, Cindy; Bobbie Lynn and Danielle, too. I'm here. Moni

So many memories and so little time. Chris was always there for me no matter what. We had a tight bond even if we were far apart. He had a contagious laugh that would put a smile on anyone's face. Love you forever and always...Dani ❤️
