There's not a day that goes by that I have you on my mind with a memory or your laugh or your smile. Life will never be the same. I love and adore you. I hope Heaven is what you thought it would be you deserve it. Watch over all of us as you did when you were on earth. I love you.

Mom may have been little in stature, but she had a big beautiful heart. I was blessed to know you for 45 years, and have you as my mom in law and friend. Most married people complain about their mother in laws, and there are even jokes about mother in laws. I never understood that, because I loved my mother in law, and she was awesome. Thanks for everything you did over the years, always being there, and for being Stan's mom. You raised a great son, husband, dad, and grandpa. See you again at Heaven's gates someday mom. Love you!
