The tide recedes but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand. The sun goes down but gentle warmth still lingers on the land. The music stops and yet it lingers on, in sweet refrain, for every joy that passes, something beautiful remains. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time.

After graduating from college in 1999 I was sent to Menards in Muskegon to help with a remodel on third shift. Ryan was my first Menards friend in Muskegon. He was super cool and funny. My condolences go out to his family.

I worked with Ryan for many years and for a few of those years, I was lucky enough to work side-by-side with him. He was always so good to me and he genuinely cared for his family and friends. I feel privileged to call him my friend and I'm grateful for the memories we share. RIP Ryan, I'll never forget you

I have so many memories with Ryan! A few to share that may be relatable... When we used to go shopping together he would buy three times as many clothes as me. He had to so that they could all match perfectly! When we used to get ready together to go anywhere, he would take twice as long to get ready as me. Half of the time spent cleaning his shoes that also matched perfectly to the rest of his outfit, hat included. He always looked like a stud!! Anything we did together was always special from working together to nights out with friends. He made it that way. And for some reason... I always think about Ryan when I'm cleaning my ears with a Q-tip!!! I miss you Ryan, and my love for you will continue forever. "Today's the day"-Lindsey
