I'll always remember Anna's warm smile and how much she enjoyed sharing pictures and stories of her family with me when I would bring her Communion from our Catholic Church here in Holland. I'm so sorry I did not get to see her again before the Lord called her home to be with her beloved husband and other family members. May the memories of all the good times and the love you shared together bring you comfort at this time. May God bless you with peace and love! Kathy Torrey Eucharistic Minister

My deepest sympathy to Anna's family. I was Anna's neighbor, Gloria Riblet in 224. Your mother was a wonderful woman. She was kind and generous. She will be missed by all of us who knew her.
