Bev Traxler lit a candle in honor of Kathleen.

I have often thought of Kaye as a second mother. As a teenager, she was always there for me, though bad and good. When I arrived from Mississippi with a baby and a suitcase, she took us in until we could find a place of our own. She was a great lady. She always cared, was always giving and made a difference in my life.

She left the world a better place by having been here. My sincere condolences to her family, that were her life. Thought and prayers to all that loved her.

Jean B Simmons lit a candle in honor of Kathleen.

Oh, so sad to hear of Kathleen's passing. My Grandpa, George Jones and Henrietta lived in our house. After their passing, my parents lived across the road from her for years, (Ted and Edna Bochenek). After their passing, I lived there for many years,

(Ray and Jean Simmons). Kay was such a sweet person. She used to come across the street and visit my Mom for an hour or so. They enjoyed each other a lot. My Mon had dementia so her and Kaye would talk about the past. Kathleen will be missed very much. My sympathy and prayers for Peace for the family. We were all Blessed because we knew Kaye.
