Rosemary was a wonderful mentor to me! She inspired me with her strong faith and loving ways!! I knew her from DeColores Ministries for about the last 20 years. I have fond memories of our reunion group that she led. We always prayed for each other and shared our hearts. My friend, Sid and I visited her in Spring Lake many times and visited her in May in Norton Shores. We always enjoyed catching up with each other. I will always miss her, and I look forward to our reunion in Heaven someday!! I am praying for peace and comfort for her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren whom she greatly treasured and dearly loved. Peace and love, Jane Pantoja

This was a family reunion in Chicago in 1996. Rosemary made a quilt that we all signed.

Rosemary, meant a lot to me, I met her for the first time at age 16 and she rented to me and helped me when I needed her. Then I got married and we lost track of each other. Then I made my DeColores weekend in Feb. 1999 and she worked and we reconnected. I sold Mary Kay under her for a long time, was in reunion groups with her and spent time out side of events. I loved her dearly I called her my spiritual mom. Since she moved to Spring lake and Norton Shores Jane and I would go see her and keep in touch. I learned a lot from her, I will surely miss her. Enjoy dancing in heaven with our Lord dear Rosemary, I will see you again some day. I will be praying for her family.

Rosemary really enjoyed dancing. She would let me lead her in a 'swing' style dance, to the music of Jeff Grossenbacher's version of Brown Eyed Girl. She enjoyed the caribbean music and the concert on the grass. Matt has always been such a wonderful son to Rosemary. He would bring her out to dinner and concerts and encourage her to get her "steps in". I remember her smile and her warm and caring friendliness.
