Berta was one of my favorite customers at the DollarTree, one time she even brought me in some bread that she made. I will truly miss seeing her in the store and the conversations we would have. My thoughts go out to the family.

Berta and her spouse Jesse were very close to our family. We enjoyed our visits to there home. Berta was my Godmother , always happy , kind and loved to cook when we visited. She had a big heart, always willing to help anyone when it was needed. Her doors were always opened. She will be greatly missed. Janie Ramos & family.
