Mary L. Butler

JUL 12, 1942 - SEP 12, 2021

Mary Louise Butler, age 79, of Muskegon passed away on Sunday, September 12, 2021. She was born on July 12, 1942, in Columbia, Arkansas to her parents Tyree and Savanna (Poole) Butler, but she lived most of her life in Muskegon, MI. Mary worked for many years as a dietician at both Hackley Hospital and Brookhaven Nursing Home until she retired in 2005. Although she spent most of her career cooking for others, she still enjoyed cooking for her family and friends. Mary was a very caring individual who always kept in touch with her loved ones, whether it was reminding them to bring the dogs inside or letting them know about incoming bad weather. Mary loved all her family members, but especially her grandchildren. She was very active at her Church, Fresh Manna Church of God in Grand Rapids, where she attended Bible Study and cooked for the congregation. Mary is survived by her daughter, Vicky Evans; son-in-law, Apostle John Evans; four grandchildren: Jeremiah (Alexis) Evans, Johnathan Evans, Merci Evans, and Miracle Evans; multiple great-grandchildren; two sisters: Shirley Pipkins and Diane Scott; her brother, Tyree Butler Jr.; and her close friend, Mother Ollie Jackson. Mary was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Eugene Butler. A memorial service for Mary will be taking place on Monday, September 20, 2021, at 2:00 PM at The Lee Chapel of Sytsema Funeral & Cremation Services (6291 Harvey St., Norton Shores, MI, 49444). Vicky - I am sharing in your sadness as I recollect decades of precious memories, delicious "soul food" meals and good times with you and your mom. She was funny in her own special way...quick with the comments and unapologetic when offering words of wisdom that sometimes left us speechless. Growing up together, it was obvious how much she loved you and that she prioritized your happiness and success above everything else. I am truly sorry for your loss; and so grateful that I was one of many to be positively touched by her presence. Keeping you and your family in my thoughts and prayers. - Kathy Moore
