Diane & Mike Elliott posted:

Tim was a joy to have in our congregation. He was one of the first that welcomed us on our first time to Black Creek Bible several years ago. We are going to miss his presence but rejoice that he is finally with his Lord Jesus Christ, the One that paid the price for sin and Tim's salvation by His death on the cross and glorious resurrection. Tim lovingly accepted Jesus into his heart. We will see you in glory our friend. So thankful you are with Jesus enjoying being pain free and loved. Diane and Mike Elliott
