I have many great memories of Debbie growing up in a wonderful neighborhood. there were lots of kids in the neighbor but there were three of us that were the best of friends and she was one of them. thru the years i would see Debbie out and about and she always had a smile on her face and always made me laugh! I will miss seeing her at Coast Guard she would be at her family home and I would be at mine! Rest in Peace Debbie you fought a long hard battle with dignity and grace! You will be missed by so many! So sorry to hear the loss of this wonderful woman and mother. She had a heart of gold for thinking of others . Although we have never met we connect through the Yost family and the VFW. Our mothers spent endless hours there volunteering for events that helped others.If I could bring back the loved one you lost,I'd call up to heaven and speak to the boss.I'd explain how she is missed by family & friends,The love for her children that had no end.She had lots to give and everything to gain,Nobody needs this heartache and pain.God has reasons that we don't know,For Debbie, she had to leave and go.It's hard for us to know & understand,Her life and soul is in God's hands.Her pain is gone it's now deceased,Let's pray for her family they have peace.Debbie gave her all and we felt her love,God will take care of her in heaven above.You won't be forgotten as you depart,You will always be, forever in our heart.By Sally MeckerShawn Yost Mother
