Dick Baker

JUN 16, 1947 - JAN 24, 2022

Mr. John Dickinson (Dick) Baker, age 74, of Grand Haven passed away Monday, January 24, 2022, at home. He was born June 16, 1947, in Grand Haven to Douglas and Katharine (Hall) Baker. Dick married Cindy Casey, August 28, 1971, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Spring Lake after a serendipitous meeting at the Bil Mar just eight months earlier. Later they went on to create a family that would bring him the most beautiful and joyful purpose in life. He adored his wife, daughters and grandchildren to no end.

Dick was in the first graduating class of Spring Lake High School and went on to be one of the first inductees of their sports hall of Fame. He also graduated from UNC Chapel Hill and took great pride in being a Tar Heel. Dick enjoyed golfing, basketball, swimming in the Big Lake, bird watching, big band, reading and any little thing that brought him joy- which was most things. He was a goofball and a prankster, he loved fun. He could be heard down the block hollering at the Detroit Lions or the Pistons; He never missed a game. Dick had no patience for traffic and got around mostly by bike. When faced with travel in the car, he always found the red roads, the scenic route to travel- a lesson we cherish both figuratively and literally. He wrote countless "bird notes" to family and friends and would stop at nothing to support them and enjoy life with all of us that were lucky enough to have known him. He was the most genuine, caring husband, father, "Bumpa" and friend anyone could ever have. He found essential value in every person he met and treated all with the same respect and dignity. Dick worked until his dying day at D Baker and Son Lumber Co. He did the jobs no one else could or wanted to, meticulously and with great care. He was humble, helpful and truly kind.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Cindy; four daughters: Melissa (Jim) Baker-Boosamra of Grand Rapids, Allison (Mike) Anderson of Spring Lake, Nada (Ryan) Edson of Grand Haven, Sarah (Doug) Edgar of Grand Haven; thirteen grandchildren: Jharid, Chloe, Asa, and Ocean Boosamra, Avery, and Brenden Anderson, Kloe, Grant and Casey Edson, and Edith, James, Mary, and Louise Edgar; sisters, Ginny (Larry) McFadden, and Rachel Calderon; brother, Bruce (Christine) Baker; in-laws: John Casey, Tory (Joe) Thrift, and Sarah Palmer and many nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and co-workers. He was preceded in death by his parents, Doug and Kathy Baker, in-laws, Colonel Edward J. and Nada (Dreier) Casey; and his brothers-in-law, Larry Palmer and Walter Foote.

Thanks for the great photos, Kevin. I didn't get to share a memory with you at the funeral... We always loved our trips up to West Lake, Hardee's and your house. We would keep the windows shut for the whole ride up to see how hot we could get before finally running into the water when we reached our swimming spot. I remember one pool party at your house when my dad unknowingly brought the camcorder into the men's room with him. Luckily it wasn't anything to mortifying and the camera didn't catch anything it shouldn't have... Even so we all were horribly embarrassed and had a great laugh together. Thanks for being such a friend to my dad.

Love to Cindy, Bruce and all the family. Wish I could be there Saturday, but I will surely participate in the great tribute online. This is the core of our Chapel Hill gang who shared a house in the riotous days of 1968-69. Dick was the usual source of many mischiefs (and always willing to drive in that infamous Chevy), as well as being the leader of our campus-basketball team (who won the all-campus championship in 1968 and were personally congratulated by Coach Dean Smith). In the 2nd picture, sadly the only ones left are myself and Bucky Layton at upper right. Glasses raised to Dick, Christopher Ferguson (who died just over a year ago in St Petersburg FL), and Doug (Dug) Saunders who we lost touch with but died before our 50th UNC reunion. Peace to all, and my best from Maine.

To the family who played such a key role in my life as my next-door neighbor--Cindy, Melissa, Alison, Nada, Sarah, and of course Dick--my heart goes out to you all. We've often reminisced about Melissa's loud sunbathing music from the balcony, offset by my louder Beethoven; about dogs barking all night at racoons on the wire and Jim's honeybees soaring in and out over the tramp from behind our garage; about those first balmy evenings in spring when Cindy and I would sit on our porches with G & Ts; about the frustrations and perks of that shared driveway of ours (my own frustration was kids blocking me when they picked up your girls, my perk was snowplowing for free); and the borrowed electric lawn mower of yours whose cord I kept running over and severing. And oh so much more, all of which I treasure. A model family you were to me in those days of my struggles with divorce and bad boyfriends and naughty teenagers. Always there to let me borrow an egg or a cup of milk or entertain me when I was alone at Christmas. (I think I still owe Melissa a gift.) Also the connection through Walter and Rachel, which made us feel closer than ever. Even after Jim and I moved away, first to Coopersville for the bees, and later to Florida after he developed Chronic Fatigue, you always kept in loyal touch. (I still remember the amusing thing you said to me on a Christmas card, Cindy, which I still chuckle at: "Dick=Golf." Such a succinct way of summing up your husbandly news. I will stop there, but please know how much you and Dick and rest of the family have meant to me over the year. And how I grieve along with you as we face our mutual losses. Sharon Whitehill

He and I went to a Detroit Pistons basketball camp in his yellow 1955 Chevrolet 2 door one summer. What a great trip it was, his play improved a lot from that experience.
