We were blessed to be Helens neighbors for a few years. My daughter took care of her trash can and other small jobs. She would call to thank her and we would talk for a long time! She was full of great stories and was open about her faith ❤️❤️ Glad we got to know eachother

I was fortunate enough to have Helen as a customer of my clothing and accessories shop. Her style, taste, and love of fashion was second to none. Photos from newspapers, magazines and catalogues were often cut out to share with me a new or renewed trend. It was always a fun visit when she came and the conversation was not limited to fashion. Her beloved John visited with her once, and then regularly, making the visits even richer. Their interest in everything made for fabulous company. Though she would humbly deny it, her life was one to be admired. Having taken care of her parents, to a wonderful career with AT&T and all her generous support of local businesses and charities. I am blessed to have crossed paths with Helen. My condolences to her family, her often talked about nieces, and friends. Joan MacMeekin

I have fond memories of Helen and John. They were such wonderful active supporters of the Tri-Cities, and they helped the Loutit District Library to become what it is today. Years after the Loutit Library renovation project, Helen surprised me with a nice gift to recognize an award that I had received. It was comforting to know that Helen continued to support people and projects in our community. The world needs more people like Helen & John, and our community will miss them. Jeff Beswick
