Mr. Ronald McGhan, age 75, passed away peacefully with his family by his side after a long battle with brain cancer. He was born on June 1, 1947 to Wilmer and Betty (Vanhuizen) McGhan in Muskegon. He was preceded in death by his parents, and brother, Joe McGhan. Ron's passing has been very hard on me since I've known him since kindergarten. I've always enjoyed him through the years. When I bought my home 39 years ago Ron was there pouring all the concrete for the driveway side walk and porch. It still looks great today. Through the years Ron has done many jobs for my wife Therese and I. We both love Ron and Jean very much. They are very special people!!!! We'll miss Ron Dearly!!!!!!

Jean, Ron, Lisa and Kris. Prayers and Condolences to you and the Family. Ron was one of the best neighbor a kid could ask for. Always there to help when in need. He would offer his knowledge of hunting and building to help the Starling Kids have a safe place to play. His extra lot was always full on the weekends. When we would play baseball or football. He was the one that decided it was time I learned how to swim, by throwing me in the deep end and told me to swim to the edge, lol. He was also the first neighbor to call me by LEE 1 or 2, since he could not remember who I was, lol. (I was Lee 2, lol) Some many memories from the 40 plus years of being the neighbor across the street. Jean and Family. If you need anything just call. I will try my best to help. Love to you all. Michael. (Lee#2, lol)
