I will always remember how full of energy and life Kelly was whenever I was over to the house hanging out with Tye. She would come downstairs at 5am and slap us with pillows "wake up! you are sleeping your day away!" She will be missed very much. Hopefully we can remember to live like she did and take every minute she was given and make the best of it. Love you guys.

Kelly and I worked together at Long John Silvers years ago and I remember going to the "Lumberjacks" Hockey games together! Kelly was fun and we shared a lot of laughs together. Although we didn't see each other after graduation, we shared many happy memories that will keep her in my thoughts and prayers each day!

What great memories we have made. From the boys baby club, cookie parties, celebrating our birthdays, sitting by the campfires watching the "colors" and cooking pizza rolls to the times we shared this summer by the pool with Katilyn. You will be greatly missed. Rest in peace me dear friend, until we meet again! Steve, Katilyn, Tye and Meghan, my heart goes out to you all, were here for you always.Teresa, Eddie, Derek and Taylor Moore
