I learned a lot from Wilma during the times when we did Genealogy together. What a memory she had. Wished I had been able to keep up with her. It always seemed like there would be time to reconnect but it just didn't happen.

Mom, it's so hard to say good bye because it doesn't feel natural, and I know you're still with me in love and spirit. I already miss not bringing your dinner to you these past few nights. Or checking in to see if you were okay or needed anything. I think Johnny said it best: "this world won't be the same without you." It is going to be a big adjustment for all of us, and I'm sure we'll be fine, but I don't know if I will ever stop missing you and Dad. All of me loves all of you for eternity. I remember when I was young and you would scold me when I got sassy. You'd refer to me as "Little Girl!" Oh, how that erked me! I think you knew I would not only be little in height when I grew up, but I would never stopped being your "Little Girl!" I love you Mom. Kiss Dad for me! Starr
