Dear Mary Jane, I was so sorry to see that your mom has left us and gone on to her heavenly home. We both know how much better she is now as hard as it is for us to say good-bye. I always looked forward to seeing the both of you at her visits with Dr. Elliott. Even though I had moved on I often think of all the wonderful patients and friends that I have left behind. Hopefully we will run in to each other down the road someday until then I send my heartfelt sympathy. Love Ted and Cindy Dorsey

Mary & the entire family: I share your sorrow in the passing of Lee, wow what a joy she was to have living in the home. Your family is very special and was a joy to serve you all. What love you and the grandchildren showed as you sat by her bed holding her hand, spending the night and visiting her. Keep the many happy memories you all have in your hearts forever. Char
