Unc's, it's been the best year of my life because I got to spend the majority of it with you. You started off as a stranger and became my best friend. Every Monday morning I looked forward to your return and every Saturday morning, I would miss you terribly when you left for home, so I called you a lot lol. In the last year, we literally created a lifetime of unforgettable memories together. You, my brother, and I, we were just 3 stooges living in a bachelor pad. Your sense of humor got me through any day of the week. You were always there to counsel us on things we didn't know how to do and mentor us on things we were still learning to do. You took an interest in our daily lives and supported us in everything we did. For all that and so much more, I am so privileged to have had you in my life for the time I did. We had a good run throughout this year together and my life at the bachelor pad will never be the same without you here. You will forever be in my heart... Love Ryan

R.I.P Uncle Paul Theeuwes. It's funny how someone can come into your life at 19 years old and completely change you as a person. Thank you for being a huge part of my life the past year and a half. You are not only a great uncle, but a great role model to me and most of all you became my best friend. Words can't describe how thankful I am for that and I honestly don't know where I would be in my life right now if you wouldn't have walked into it. You made me become the man I am today and I'm so honored to be able to say I got to spend the last year and a halves journey with you. I'm so unbelievably proud of you for how strong you are. You've went through more obstacles toward the end than I could even imagine dealing with in a life time, yet you never made it noticeable. I'm proud that I get to tell people I seen you at your worst, and I seen you clean yourself from alcohol in 14 months to become a completely different person and got to watch you inspire everyone who walked into your life. You will be missed uncle Paul and I will always love you. You may have left this earth but you will never leave my heart. May your soul rest in peace. Love your Nephew...

Oh my gosh, I was just thinking about Paul this morning. A couple of years ago he came over and helped Tim and I put up our Christmas lights because we are afraid of heights and he said he wasn't and would do it. I am so sorry for your loss. May God bless you and bring you comfort. This saddens me so much, he was such a sweet man.
