May you find peace in the knowledge that Red was an inspiration and role model for so many. I was fortunate to know Red while he was here in the Flint area. He was a friend and helped as a volunteer at our school, using his communication device with others who had no voice of their own. My prayers are with you. Jenny Thompson

Grief like the ocean comes in waves only to recede and come yet again, but with it comes healing. Memories were ashore and are bathed by the golden sun. Grab hold of those memories and let them fill the emptiness you feel now. May they bring you peace. Perhaps when you look up at the night sky and see the stars they really are not stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost one pours through and shines down upon us as a beacon of light to let us know they are happy. Red was an extraordinary person. Someone who will be greatly missed and his legacy will live on in the hearts of those who have loved him!

Dear Billie, I was surprised and saddened to read of Red's passing. He was a fine and courageous man. He and I shared a lot of enjoyable time together, as you know. Now that he is unincumbered by a body he struggled to control, he can soar in Heaven, as his mind did, here on earth. My thoughts and prayers go out to you, today and always.
