One of my favorite memories of Keith was when we would greet each other in the morning. We'd say our good mornings. And before we would go out onto the floor, he would shrug his shoulders, shake his head and give a small laugh. Then we'd start our day. I'm going to miss that man.

I had the privilege of working with both Keith and Shawn, Keith was always willing to help in any way he could. He was a very bright light in a dark world, he never had a bad word for anyone or anything. My heart goes out to the Wilterdink family and you will be in our prayers.

Keith was a wonderful man, always willing to help those in need. He loved his wife Lois dearly. I remember the loving care he and Lois gave to his mother Olive. What a loving reunion they've had!
