Marlene Smith posted:

I was the best friend of his little sister, "Cookie" when we were 12-19 years old. I lived across the street, and I always thought of Mert as a father figure since he was 13 years older than us, and because he no longer lived with his parents, I didn't really get to know him all that well. I am sorry for your loss. Marlene Luker-Smith

Karen K./Chestnut Fields Retirement lit a candle in honor of Murdock.

I was blessed to have met Mert in his latter years. He liked talking about business and aviation, and he will always be remembered fondly along with his dog Murphy.
