I'm sorry for the loss of Barb. She was a dear friend and client of mine for many years. I believe I did her hair very 25yrs. One day she didn't come in anymore and I tried hard to track her down. I knew she was having memory troubles. Bless her heart and yours, I know she greatly loved her boys and families. My condolences to all of you!

So Can Remember Barb Sharing a childhood story about knowing all the big bands (Famous) names that came to the Fruitport Pavillion. she said both her mom and dad worked there and on nights Barb was there she would sit at a corner table in the back with her glass of coke and listen to those big bands " and she rattled off all the big names and some stories behind them Will never forget that . Barb had a lot of those kind of stories From a dear friend and former co-worker jay Hoebeke
