Linda was always a joy to be around during my years as security at Muskegon General Hospital. Miss the family that those of us that worked there had. Rest well.

Linda was always a sweetheart to me growing up. I spent many late summer high school nights raiding her cupboards with Eric eating anything we could find and she would come out and see us, laugh, and tell us to clean up after ourselves. Also had some great conversations with her. She always treated me as a young adult with respect when we talked about life. I appreciated that. Rest in peace Mrs. Imbault.

Linda was my neighbor for several years and we used to get together for lunches or sometimes they turned into dinners. My heart breaks to hear of her passing. She loved hard and remained true to her family, close friends and herself. Rest in Heaven my sweet friend ❤️
