“ I cannot put into words what Ammy meant to me and Bennett Pump. She took on the job with such exuberance and passion. On top of that, she was just a great person. I will miss her smile and witty personality. Burnie, Mykell and Quinntin I cannot imagine what you are going through right now, Just remember that your extended family here at Bennett Pump are here for you. Ammy your boy's on the Atlantic Line will miss you terribly and will honor the legacy that you have left. I will miss you too.

“ I remember the early morning I met Ammy (weed hopper) I was in the hospital just gave birth to my son 14 hours earlier when she came in from just having Derrick. She kept hollering "I want a cigarette, I want a cigarette!" Her mom kept saying Ammy be quite there's a girl sleeping. We became instant friends and our sons were too. Love her like a sister. Her family became my family. I will miss her and her fun laughter so much.

“ Am my, you will be so missed by all of us! We love you! You were a big part of holding our families together with Family Reunions! Your so darn cute and love how you dressed for work making everyone happy! I have my beautiful Honest from you! You know. Am my, she still doesn't bark either, she can but just content enough she doesn't. Please give our love to everyone in heaven. I can just imagine all the Aunts and Uncles, grandparent there to meet you at the pearly gates! I will see you in time my beautiful cousin! Ella Rae

“ Thank you, Ammy, for always being a loving and caring sister-in-love in our family. I will forever miss your big personality, sweet smile, and the festival of life that you shared with everyone in your midst. You are definitely one-of-a-kind and uniquely designed for Burnie and the kids and grandkids and all other family members and your innumerable friends! You did life well and your life and love legacy shall live for many generations
Love and Blessings Cyndi

“ We always said we weren't people, because neither one of us liked people but, we liked each other which made us not people! We had the same logic, our logic and it made sense to us so we did not care what anyone else said. We had some good times together and we will again someday. Love and miss you my dear friend, I will keep an eye on Burnie and the kids, after all I am the daughter/ sister that they never wanted but they ain't getting rid of me now, RIP Ammy.

“ I will always remember the taste of dirt because of my mom. She warned me to knock off my kidding around or she would take me outside and make me eat dirt. She's little but she wasn't joking. She dragged me out and let's just say, dirt doesn't taste good. I will always be a momma's boy. I love you Mother. -Q
