“ Barb lived across the street from us in the Nims Neighborhood on McGraft St. for many years. We enjoyed many lovely and lively conversations with her, especially about our "older" homes. The summer of 2003 was especially memorable because her daughter Christina, and son-in-law, Richard Smith, came for an extended visit and vacation with their three children. Our son, Nicholas, as well as his neighborhood friends, became good friends with the three grandchildren of Barb's; Savannah, Zachary, and Max. They shared good times in our backyard, and at the beach. It was a sad day for the children when the vacation ended. Although we have not connected with Barb and her family for many years, we would think about her often. We extend our sympathy and love to her family. May her soul rest in peace. Our connection with Barb, Christina, Richard, and the children, as well as Alan, will never be forgotten. May God's blessings surround you with assurance, comfort, peace, and love.

“ I used to live a across the street from Barb. I spent a number of days helping her with the fall leaves or shoveling snow. Conversations around the mailbox were a common occurrence. She was a wonderful neighbor and I was blessed to have spent the time with her that I did. Thoughts and prayers to her family, she will be missed but remembered.

“ We will miss Barb. Always enjoyed our talks about gardening and life! She was a kind lady and our lives are better for knowing her. I am sure she is in heaven enjoying her eternal green, weed free lawn and beautiful flowers. Wrapping her family in prayer.
