“ So heartbroken. My heart just aches for my dear friend Kris, Norm and the entire family. Christmastime will never sound the same without the ring of Carol’s laughter. It will be dimmer without the glow of her hospitality. These are the surprises and changes in life we do not wish for.

While I’m devastated and shocked, it’s the loss the Moss family is feeling that is most crushing. You are such a loving, close-knit family full of beautiful traditions;and Carol was definitely the matriarch of it all.

John just found some red pop he made this summer. Think we’ll crack one open and tearfully toast to the beautiful life Carol spun about her; catching everyone near in her web of warmth and kindness.

To you Carol. Na zdrowie

“ Our friendship started with a simple question.... Where are the Pierogis. I am so glad I asked because your friendships meant so much to me. Our time making Pierogi, working the festival, our midnight text, and your love of laughter that was truly contagious are just a few things I will cherish about you forever.
RIP my friend
Jackie
