

Connie Alexander Deal

November 21, 1926 - April 8, 2019

God whispered my name.

Connie Alexander Deal, age 92, of Spring Lake passed away from this life to life eternal on Monday, April 8, at her home surrounded by her immediate family. Connie was born November 21, 1926, in Kokomo, Indiana. She married Richmond T. Jones on May 26, 1950, in Toledo, Ohio, and moved to Spring Lake 60 years ago.

She remarried Albert L. Deal on May 10, 1972, in Grand Haven, Michigan, and was employed as a teacher in hospitality at the Kent Skills Center in Grand Rapids. She was also well-known locally for her sales work in men's and women's fashion at several Grand Haven stores. She was a member of St. John's Episcopal Church in Grand Haven. She loved people, parties, fashion and travel. The joy of her life was being with her loving husband and surrounded by four sons and nine grandchildren.

She leaves the lights of her life, her four sons: Richmond (Cindy) H. Jones, Douglas H. Jones (deceased 2018), Craig (Yvette) H. Jones and Dr. Donald (Nikole) H. Jones; and nine grandchildren: Alexandra, Quintin, Cliff, Marshall, Winston, Anisa, Nicolette, Hunter and Felix; and seven great-grandchildren.

A private memorial service for Connie will be held at St. John's Episcopal Church. Memorials to St. John's Episcopal Church are appreciated. Please sign the family's online guestbook at www.sytsemafz.com.

“ I met Connie at a very young age while working at Dockside, it was my first job and her last. She and I instantly connected, and I spent many hours listening to her stories and life lessons.

I was blessed to have spent many hours with her in my adolescence and she influenced who I became as an adult.

Although I grew apart from Connie, she always has been in my mind. Her resilience and fire will always remain in my heart.

“ Connie was such a lovely lady. Always dressed to go out every day even if she just stayed at home. My time with her was such a joy. I loved listening to her stories about her life and family. She made me laugh and filled my heart with love. I will deeply miss this dear lady. I know your family memories will sustain you and give you peace.

My condolences to all of your family.
