“ Sorry to hear about your Mother Laura, I hadn't seen her in many years but when I used to come over I always thought she was a kind, sweet woman. We know where she's at.

“ She cut off her nails so she could play guitar and sing me a song. She reminded me of Loretta Lynn! I am sorry Laura, I love you!

“ We did not make it to Spring Lake often, but my greatest childhood memory of going there was of Aunt Doris taking us to the orchard and letting us eat the largest, freshest, juiciest peaches straight from the tree.

As an adult, I loved Aunt Doris' straightforward, matter-of-fact way of communicating. There were never any surprises with Aunt Doris. If you took the time to listen to her, she told you exactly what she thought.

Laura & David, although I will be unable to attend the service, my thoughts and prayers will be with you on Thursday and in the coming months.

Your cousin,
Jay

“ How well I remember the family dinners at Wayne and Doris Hasty's . Dave and I and our children felt blessed to enjoy Doris' wonderful cooking . As a young bride I was constantly asking her how she prepared my favorites . She made me a dress or two, and even made our son Brian a white dress jacket to wear at his aunt's wedding .

She had do many talents and stories to tell . Even after Dave and I split up, I felt a bond with her . At my son's wedding, she gave me a hug and whispered"I have always loved you Linda" Doris, I have always loved and admired you !
