“ My name is Jeffery Barnes and I am Janet and John's biological son. I remember every Christmas eve going to grandma's house on wolf lake and eating Turkey and ham and grandma's mashed potatoes, if you ever had grandmas potatoes then you will never want them Any other way besides with gravy or butter but, I dont think any of us liked her potatoes without her gravy. We spent so much time with her when I was a child. Always fishing and catching turtles in wolf lake. She taught me that if you have a hair in your throat to chew on some bubble gum. She always had the hard life savers for Jake and I when she would come to our house to visit. Out of everyone no matter how far I sank into darkness she was the only one there at the end who truly knew i got better.
