“ Thank you, Scott. Much appreciated. I have many memories of Kent Products from when I was little...he made a lot of friends there. Thank you for being one of them.

“ My Dad passed away this Thanksgiving morning, Thursday November 28th, 2019. He will be remembered by me as a caring grandfather who enjoyed spending time with his family. He traveled as much as he could and enjoyed each experience to the fullest. Taking his granddaughter Regina to visit his daughter Jean in Massachusetts many years ago was a trip that he spoke of often...as does Regina! Visiting my family in Indy for my wedding and many wedding anniversary golf outings were highlights of our lives. My brother Brad was always there for him, and I will be forever grateful for that, as I know Dad was, too. Grand Haven became his home for decades and is a place that holds many memories for my family. Have fun on the golf course up there, Dad...and enjoy that 19th hole Manhattan.
